WALK

FULBOURN to CAMBRIDGE

8½ miles - 4-5 hours

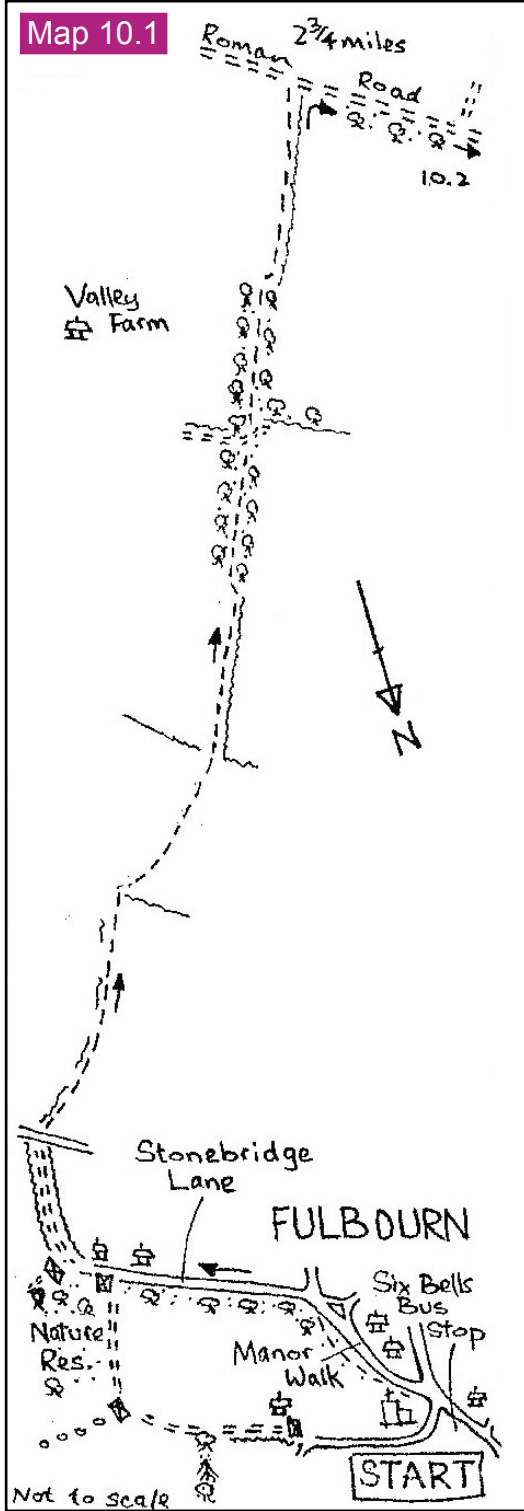

ALONG THE ROMAN ROAD

Paths across rolling chalky fields lead to the Roman Road, a popular walk enjoyed by generations of Cambridge people. A deviation (extra 3¼ miles in total; arrow with v tail on map) can be made to Magog Downs, from where there are superb viewpoints, returning to the Roman Road via Wandlebury Country Park. Within the Iron Age ramparts the stable block houses the grave of the famous Godolphin Arabian racehorse. Beyond the Beechwoods nature reserve a pleasant permissive path runs between hedges at the side of Wort's Causeway. Frequent buses from Addenbrooke's hospital direct to the railway station can be used to shorten the walk by 2¾ miles. Fulbourn railway station is long gone, but the starting point can be easily reached by using buses Citi 1/3 from Cambridge railway station.
